

Gales Creek Community Church
“Past, Present, and Future”
Romans 5:6-11
Sunday, April 9, 2017

Sermon in a sentence: Jesus’ death changed our legal status with God; His resurrection changes our state.

- Our focus today will be on verses 8 – 10
- Four verbs to focus on and their tenses
 - “Proves” (present tense)
 - How does He prove this?
 - “Died” (past tense)
 - ...Once for all...
 - “Reconciled” (past tense)
 - Remember our sermon last week...this is more than just a legal technicality
 - “Saved” (future tense)
 - In a sense: past, present, and future
 - Saved from God’s wrath...now and then
- Closing thought: Now that my relationship with Jesus is restored, how is He changing me?

Gales Creek Community Church
“Past, Present, and Future”
Romans 5:6-11
Sunday, April 9, 2017

Sermon in a sentence: Jesus’ death changed our legal status with God; His resurrection changes our state.

- Our focus today will be on verses 8 – 10
- Four verbs to focus on and their tenses
 - “Proves” (present tense)
 - How does He prove this?
 - “Died” (past tense)
 - ...Once for all...
 - “Reconciled” (past tense)
 - Remember our sermon last week...this is more than just a legal technicality
 - “Saved” (future tense)
 - In a sense: past, present, and future
 - Saved from God’s wrath...now and then
- Closing thought: Now that my relationship with Jesus is restored, how is He changing me?