

“Righteousness is a Five Letter Word Part I”

Bulletin Notes

Sunday, March 12, 2017

Sermon in a sentence: Abraham’s FAITH gave him the role of patriarch over the family of genuine believers.

- Verse 3
 - “Reckon” is an accounting term meaning to square and balance an account
- Verses 4-8
 - Illustration of earned wages versus a gift
 - Psalm 32
- Verses 9-12
 - Paul turns his focus from Abraham to circumcision
 - Paul’s rhetorical question: “Is this faith principal intended only for those who are identified with God’s covenant with Abraham?”
 - Placing more focus on the ACT versus the FAITH
- Verses 13-15
 - Paul sums up his thesis
- Conclusion
 - Righteousness is a five-letter word: FAITH
 - We achieve this through God’s “Don’t-Do-It-Yourself Kit”

“Righteousness is a Five Letter Word Part I”

Bulletin Notes

Sunday, March 12, 2017

Sermon in a sentence: Abraham’s FAITH gave him the role of patriarch over the family of genuine believers.

- Verse 3
 - “Reckon” is an accounting term meaning to square and balance an account
- Verses 4-8
 - Illustration of earned wages versus a gift
 - Psalm 32
- Verses 9-12
 - Paul turns his focus from Abraham to circumcision
 - Paul’s rhetorical question: “Is this faith principal intended only for those who are identified with God’s covenant with Abraham?”
 - Placing more focus on the ACT versus the FAITH
- Verses 13-15
 - Paul sums up his thesis
- Conclusion
 - Righteousness is a five-letter word: FAITH
 - We achieve this through God’s “Don’t-Do-It-Yourself Kit”